

ARBITRATION— SUBMISSION FOR INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION (UNCITRAL RULES)

- We, the undersigned parties, agree to submit to arbitration, before Edward J. Costello, and in accordance with the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules in effect on the date of this Agreement, the following dispute(s): [describe dispute(s) with great specificity]. The appointing authority will be the College of Commercial Arbitrators
- The arbitration shall be conducted in [city, state, country] and in the [English, or Chinese, etc.] language.
- The matter shall be heard and decided by one arbitrator(s). Any arbitrator appointed to hear and decide disputes submitted by this Agreement may be a citizen of any country except the following:_____].
- We further agree that any court having jurisdiction to do so may enter a judgment upon the award made in this arbitration.

Dated:_____

Comment: Parties, and/or their counsel, may be suspicious of prospective arbitrators who are nationals of the opponent's home country. So, many of these clauses contain a provision that no arbitrator may be a national (or permanent resident) of the home country of any of the parties. Some ADR providers have the same stipulation in their rules.
